SEC. 409. TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM.

The first sentence of section 661(b) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 is amended to read as follows: "There are authorized to be appropriated to the President for purposes of this section, in addition to funds otherwise available for such purposes, $21,000,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $21,000,000 for fiscal year 1987."

SEC. 410. OPERATING EXPENSES.

Section 667(a)(1) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 is amended to read as follows:

"(1) $391,533,200 for fiscal year 1986 and $391,533,200 for fiscal year 1987 for necessary operating expenses of the agency primarily responsible for administering part 1 of this Act; and"

Mr. HYDE. Mr. Chairman, section 407 of H.R. 1555 provides that the Secretary of State shall coordinate all U.S. Government anti-terrorism assistance to foreign countries. It also requires the Secretary to report annually to appropriate committees of the Congress on such assistance.

Section 407 states that the Secretary will be responsible for "coordinating" all U.S. anti-terrorism assistance to foreign countries. This makes clear that—while the Secretary will be both fully informed of all such U.S. assistance and responsible for ensuring that no duplication, gaps or unwarranted competition occurs in providing such assistance—the Secretary's role under section 407 does not impair or affect the existing authorities and responsibilities of the Director of Central Intelligence under the National Security Act of 1947 or Executive Order 12333.

I note also, Mr. Chairman, that the reports required by section 407 do not affect existing arrangements for the protection of detailed information on anti-terrorism intelligence activities. Thus, the Foreign Affairs Committee report on H.R. 1555 states with respect to the reports required by section 407 that:

It is the intent of the Committee that the required annual reports be referred to the appropriate committees consistent with existing law regarding the reporting of intelligence activities.

This makes clear that reports on anti-terrorism intelligence activities will be referred to the Congressional Intelligence Committees.

Mr. Chairman, given that section 407 preserves existing authorities concerning anti-terrorism intelligence activities and ensures protection of information furnished to the Congress relating to such activities, I believe that enactment of section 407 will be a positive contribution toward combating international terrorism.

Mr. FASCELL. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, may I inquire how much time is left under the rule?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair will state to the gentleman that under the rule, there are 4 hours and 23 minutes remaining under the limitation.

Mr. FASCELL. Mr. Chairman, we are now at title IV and I just simply wanted to alert Members as to what we are going to do.

Mr. Chairman, we have two amendments which we will take up immediately which are noncontroversial and have strong broad bipartisan support. Then, unfortunately from our standpoint, we will have to rise because of a privileged motion that will have to be debated. Mr. Chairman, does the Chair have any idea about how long the privileged motion will take?

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair will state to the gentleman that the Chair cannot respond to an inquiry related to proceedings in the House.

Mr. FASCELL. Mr. Chairman, may I inquire, does anybody on the floor have any idea?

Mr. Chairman, I guess then it may take as much as 1 hour. Then we would come back, resume our sitting as the Committee of the Whole and finish title IV and continue therefrom.

We do have some other amendments which might take some debate, although I must say we have been working very diligently.

Mr. Chairman, I want to thank Members on both sides of the aisle who have worked very hard in dealing with the many amendments that we have, trying to reach agreement so that we may conserve time.

Mr. Chairman, it would be my hope, therefore, that we can conclude the remaining time of 4 hours and 23 min-
